I sulphur I shall have to go with Jones [illegible] or a kiss — but I shall have to get to Ireland on — there being no P&O. or anything available & the winds contrary.

1st nice. from the Life of St David (11th Century) by the Rhygyfarch.

a chap called Barre had taken Davids fancy to get to Ireland on — there being no P&O. or anything available & the winds contrary.

Equus enim tumentes fluctuum cumulos
cum planum perarabat campum.
Cum autem in mare longius graderetur, apparuit ubi sanctus Brendanus super marinum cetum miram ducebat vitam.
Sanctus autem Brendanus, hominem in mare videns equitantem, stupefactus,
ait "Mirabilis Deus in sanctis suis!"

I like its readable & not all spelt wrongly.
& the Eng. Trans is not so exciting.

I can just see poor old Brendan going stupefactus on a great sleipnery sea beast.

I'll give you some stuff on this life of some other time. It gets
